

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
AIR FORCE RECRUITING SERVICE (AETC)

06 JUL 2006

R:

This is in reference to our appointment we had last week. I am sorry to say that at this time you are disqualified for the Air Force due to your current DUI charges. I may be able to work getting you qualified if you were unconditionally released from your charges. If that is done you will be eligible for a Commanders waiver to enter into Military service. There are no guarantees the Commander will approve your waiver if and when you are released from your pending court case. Please be advised that I can only work on getting you in the Air Force if you are unconditionally released from any informal/formal charges. I will like to end with saying I believe you deserve a second chance and I believe in you. I'm willing to work with you and get the ball rolling if there is a chance to get you in. I truly believe you will be an exceptional asset to our great team. Please keep in touch and let me know how things are going for you.

Sincerely,
